Kloof Lions Pat Maslyn and Martin Aylwood wait on the many guests at the annual Pensioners Lunch.

Kloof Lions tend to community

KLOOF LIONS Club has been busy. On Sunday 6 December it held its annual pensioners lunch for 130 people at the Kloof Town Hall and on Saturday 12 December Lions club members spent the day at Hillcrest Hospital.

The pensioners lunch has been hosted by the Lions for 20 years, originally starting out as a tea which eventually grew to a full lunch.

The Lions also provided basic toiletries to all the patients at the hospital.
